STATE ARMS STRIKEBREAKERS: FACTS CONCEALED BY PRESS

Denver, Dec. 11.—The indictment that there was no "boycott effect" in the union and that the strike was a mere "labor dispute" is a report issued by the Denver Post. The report is a distortion of the facts, and is a deliberate attempt to mislead the public. The strike was a result of the failure of the employers to meet the demands of the workers for a fair wage and a safe working environment. The strike was a success, and the workers have won their demands.
